

2021-2022 GGSA UPDATES

Get caught up on everything your Graduate Student Association has been up to this past year!

HI ALL-

We know that this newsletter is coming to you a little late- but we want to update you on the Geography Graduate Student Association's (GGSA) activities for this past academic year! 2021-22 was our third year as a recognized student organization and we are grateful to the students and faculty who made it possible for us to serve this department. Please read on to learn about our awards received and events hosted. Congrats to those students who graduated- and we will see the rest of you at the beginning of Fall 2022! Enjoy the rest of your summer 'break'!

GGSA has maintained our website which contains info about our events, graduate resources, past newsletters, current officers and more! Click here to check it out

GRADUATE RESOURCES

Finding resources as a graduate student can be extremely difficult, time-consuming, and exhausting. In order to ease some of the pressure of doing all the work yourself, we have compiled resources in a shared folder. The umbrella categories include funding and professional development. CLICK HERE or click on the folder icon to access the resources!

ALUMNI PANEL

In November, we hosted an alumni panel with over 30 participants during Geography Awareness Week. Our alumni include Marilyn Howe, Andy Gordon, Eric Johnston, Kristen Monteverde & Mackenna Kull.
