

2023-2024 GGSA UPDATES

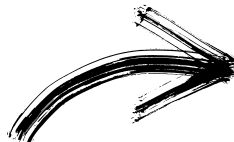

Get caught up on everything your Graduate Student Association has been up to this past year!

HI ALL-

Happy May! We want to update you on the Geography Graduate Student Association's (GGSA) activities for this past academic year! 2023-24 was our fifth year as a recognized student organization and we are grateful to the students and faculty who made it possible for us to serve this department. Please read on to learn about our awards received and events hosted. Congrats to those students who will be graduating- and we will see the rest of you at the beginning of Fall 2024! Enjoy the rest of your summer.

GGSA has maintained our website which contains info about our events, graduate resources, past newsletters, current officers and more! Click here to check it out

GRADUATE RESOURCES

Finding resources as a graduate student can be extremely difficult, time-consuming, and exhausting. In order to ease some of the pressure of doing all the work yourself, we have compiled resources in a shared folder. The umbrella categories include funding and professional development. ALUMNI PANEL

In November, we hosted an alumni panel with over 30 participants during Geography Awareness Week. Our alumni included Manny Storey, Mallorie Honey, Carmen Leedham, Joshua Logsdon, Elizabeth Moreno.
